OUTLINES.

There is terror among the negroes of Springfield, Ill., because of the removal of a number of the troops; but the authorities insist there is no danger of further trouble, still many negroes are leaving the city. Another mine has closed down because whites and negroes would not work together ——There was a riot in Atlanta yesterday between the police and Federal troops en route from Fort Slocum to the Pacific coast. Troops from Fort McPherson had to be called on to quiet the soldiers——The trick mule presented Bryan by the Minnesota Agricultural Society arrives and its first proceeding is to lay up a newspaper man who attempts to ride it——In the contests at Edinburg yesterday the Americans take seven of the eleven contests with the Scotchmen——The Lancashire cotton spinners have ordered reductions of wages or a lockout for a month if the operators do not accept the proposal.——Second class postage was the subject of Assistant Postmaster Lawshe's address before the National Editorial Association yesterday——In New York a woman shoots herself because her husband leaves her. He returns and finding her dead takes his own life with the same pistol——The designs for the two new warships, the Florida and the Utah, will be completed about September 10th——"Association of Southern Democrats of New York" is the name of an organization formed yesterday in support of the National and State Democratic tickets——The Atlantic fleet yesterday reached the next stop on its world's itinerary at Sydney, N. S. W. The fleet was sighted early yesterday morning and upon its arrival was welcomed by thousands of Australians——New York markets: Money on call easy, 3-4 to 1 1-4 per cent., ruling rate, closing bid and offered at 1 per cent., time loans easier on large offerings. Flour steadier and unchanged. Wheat firm, No. 2 red 1.00 to 1.00 1-4. Corn firm, No. 2, nominal elevator, options 7-8c net higher. Oats firmer, mixed 51 1-2. Rosin quiet Turpentine quiet 39 to 39 1-2. Spot cotton closed quiet, 5 points decline, middling uplands 10.35, middling gulf 10.60.

It is said Taft used to write poetry. Boss Roosevelt has made him stop that now, however.

We've got 'em going, boys; keep it up till November 3rd and Bryan will be our next President.

Philadelphia has a ghost which answers telephone messages. Must be the ghost of some departed Hello-girl.

Why keep up this prohibition issue when it is dead and gone. Those who do so are simply playing into the hands of the Republicans.

Bryan's speech of acceptance "took the country" Everybody says, and he will take the country's ballots on election day—or enough of them to make him the next President.

Taft has but one thing in his favor to pull him through, and that is what is called by some as "Roosevelt's darned fool luck" which has pulled him out of many a hole.

If Gompers and Foraker have the influence some attribute to them the Democratic National ticket will get support this year from a source from which it never came before.

Wonder what Mr. Roosevelt is going to do to that judge from Missouri who criticised him before the Vermont Bar Association because of the latter's fault-finding with Federal court judges.

The Republicans say prosperity is here; the Democrats say it will return when Bryan is elected. Which do the thousands of unemployed wage-earners think comes nearer the truth?

It won't be long now before automobile disasters and railway wrecks will be supplanted in newspaper telegraphic reports by dirigible balloon and aeroplane explosions and break-downs.

Some crack-brained scientist has discovered that a day on the planet Jupiter is equivalent to 137 years on the earth. Now we want to know how old Methuselah would have been had he lived on Jupiter?

The Newbern Sun wants to know what's to become of the Ananias club after this year. We suppose it will continue to increase its membership, though its headquarters may be moved from Washington City, temporarily to the jungles of Africa and then to New York.

An exchange says "the Methodists now propose to take a hand in the business of electing a President." Of course, they will, for Methodists are good citizens and will do their duty as electors on election day, as will members of all other religious denominations, who will exercise their privilege to vote as they think is to the best interest of the country.

Wilson, N. C., Aug. 19.—The last game of the second series was taken here this evening by a score of four to three in favor of the Sailors, from Wilmington. Mayberry was in the box for the first two innings, allowing the Sailors to score two runs in this inning. Then Anderson did the twirling for the home team, but Mayberry had got into such a deep hole that it was impossible for Andy to pull the Tobacconists out, though the work done by this artist was gilt-edge, allowing the visitors to get only two more runs, but unfortunately for the Tobacconists just enough for the Sailors to win the much coveted and long-sought for pennant, unless one or more of the protested games are taken away from the Sailors.

Quite a delegation was here from Wilmington and from different points along the railroads, and the general impression is the game was hard fought and honestly won, the visitors outplaying the local team. The score tells the story.

EXCURSIONISTS POISONED.

A Number of Fayetteville Excursionists Poisoned—Other News.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 19.—A score or more of excursionists, who left here yesterday morning on the City of Fayetteville, for a Sunday School picnic down the Cape Fear were hurriedly brought back late yesterday afternoon ill from the effects of drinking lemonade. Several physicians met the boat and after examination declared that none of them were very seriously ill. The doctors declared that the illness of the excursionists resembld ptomaine poisoning, but could not so designate.

The steamer, carrying the picnic of the Hay Street Methodist Sunday School, was reversed and brought back in great haste.

The commission of the board of ordinance, which last week visited the cities of Greensboro, Salisbury and Asheville to investigate the subject of street paving, met last night and unanimously decided to recommend to the board the bitulithic pavement be used in paving the streets of Fayetteville. This recommendation will be made to the board of aldermen at a special meeting tonight.

Mr. S. G. Ayer, a merchant of this place, has served Mayor Bullard with notice of a petition for alternative and peremptory mandamus and the appointment of a referee to ascertain all the facts bearing on the case which the petition alleges among other things, the exemption from taxation of certain property by the board of aldermen and the giving of franchises to certain corporations in violation of the letter and spirit of the constitution of North Carolina.

REUNION AT LAURINBURG.

Governor Glenn Addresses Scotland County Veterans.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Laurinburg, N. C., Aug. 19.—Twenty-five hundred people attended the Confederate Reunion here today. The feature of the day was an address of two hours by Governor Glenn. Toward the close of his address he called the roll of many of the Confederate generals and lesser officers, all of whom have gone to their eternal reward, and dramatically closed with the calling of the roll of the Veterans of this county who have passed over the river since he was here two years ago, one of them being buried this week. The Governor exhorted the little band remaining to be ready for the summons which at best is not far distant for them.

Free dinner was served by the United Daughters of the Confederacy, the noble women who are raising funds to erect a monument to the Confederate dead of Scotland county.

Governor Glenn has accepted an engagement with a lecture bureau for the next year at a salary of $10,000, the same bureau that handled W. J. Bryan.

The weather conditions throughout this section continue to be ideal, for cotton especially, and the crop is said to be developing splendidly. The outlook was never brighter for a fine yield at this stage of growth. In fact all kinds of crops are developing very well indeed just now. The curing of tobacco is well under way and curings are reported to be very satisfactory.

The St. Helena Colony Company, of Wilmington, having for its purposes the location of colonies and the development of trucking and other lands in Eastern Carolina, is just chartered with Hugh McRae, H. M. Chase, C. L. Fisher, C. Van Louvin and others as the incorporators. The capital is $100,000 authorized and $1,000 subscribed by the incorporators.

Another charter is to the Merchant's Dray Company, of Asheville, capital $15,000 by A. C. Jackson, R. G. Harger and others, being merchants who pool interests for hauling and delivery of goods.

A change of charter for the Telfair Sanitarium Company, (Incorporated) of Asheville, provides for moving the sanitarium from Asheville to Greensboro. W. C. Ashworth is president of the corporation.

President D. H. Hill, of the A. & M. College, says quite a number of students are arriving for special work to meet conditions that must be complied with in further preparation before they pass up to next higher classes when the college normally opens for the Fall term September 3. He says the applications for admission are coming in greater volume than ever before and that the enrollment at the opening is going to round up about the capacity of the institution.

AN ASSIGNMENT IS MADE

J. C. Shepard and Company Unable to Meet Obligations and Names L. V. Grady as Trustee. Will Sell Stock.

Being unable to meet its obligations the T. C. Shepard Drug Company, on Market street, between Front and Second streets, yesterday afternoon made an assignment naming Mr. L. V. Grady, a lawyer, as trustee. The amount of the assets and liabilities could not be learned last night as it is impossible to tell until an inventory of the stock is taken.

The doors of the store were closed yesterday afternoon following an execution issued from the office of Justice Bornemann. This action was the outgrowth of case tried in Justice Bornemann's court yesterday afternoon, the drug company being sued for $70.05, claimed to be due the Darley Park Brewing Company. A judgment for the full amount was secured by the plaintiff. An execution was issued and the doors of the store were closed. The judgment was satisfied, however.

The trustee is authorized to sell at retail or in bulk the contents of the store.

HANDSOME EXHIBIT.

Trucking and Fruit Display of Carolina Trucking Development Co.

The excellent exhibit of the Carolina Trucking Development Company displayed in the window of the Tidewater Power Company, on Front street, has attracted much interest and attention during the past few days. The display which is handsomely arranged was collected by Mr. Platt W. Davis, in charge of the agricultural department of the company, and consists of specimens of forage, truck, fruit crops raised in the various colonies, under his direction, in New Hanover, Pender, Duplin and Columbus counties. This same collection was awarded a madal at the Jamestown Exposition and was afterwards exhibited at the Boston Food Fair, where it received honorable mention and, later, won a second medal at the Newbern fair. Deserving praise has been accorded the company by the people of Wilmington, who have looked its exhibit over with great admiration, and are manifesting much interest in the development of agricultural products in this section.

The display of the forage crops, consisting of crimson clover, millet, red clover, oats and vetch hay and cowpeas. The hay is all taken from the experimental farm of the Carolina Trucking Development Company in New Hanover county. The two other features of the display are the truck and fruits which were obtained from the different colonies, and these consist of cucumbers, musbmelons, onions, peppers, tomatoes, potatoes, (Irish) asparagus and squash; fruits, figs, peaches, pears, grapes and citron. In order to keep them in their natural state, they have been preserved The fruits and truck have been sealed in large glass jars, these being prepared and put up by the State Department of Agriculture at Raleigh.

MEETING OF COMMISSIONERS.

First Annual Meeting at Morehead City—Capt. Robertson Chairman.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Morehead City, N. C., Aug. 19.—The State convention is in full swing. For a first convention it is well attended and the first day's session indicates that it will be one of the most powerful and useful organizations in the State. Capt. Robertson, of New Hanover county, was this morning elected temporary chairman and is the permanent chairman. He will be the presiding officer of the entire meeting. Commissioner Richardson, of Craven, is secretary.

The convention was welcomed most heartily by Solicitor Abernathy, of this district. Capt. Robertson responded on behalf of the commissioners.

This afternoon Mr. A. D. O'Brien made a most interesting address on bridge construction. Mr. Davidson, of Guilford, showed the advantages of paying county officers fixed salaries. Capt. Robertson spoke upon the need of equalization of taxation throughout the State and how values had wonderfully increased in North Carolina in the last ten years, and still the State was demanding 43 cents per hundred for State purposes.

Congressman Thomas has just wired that a Government expert on road building will arrive tomorrow to address the convention. Representative Koonce, of Onslow, is a popular attendant. A complimentary sail and an Old Time Square Dance is on for the Commissioners tonight.

—The following shows the maximum temperature of the weather for the 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock yesterday morning: Wilmington, 91; Charlotte, 94; Cheraw, 96; Florence, 97; Goldsboro, 97; Greensboro, 95; Lumberton, 97; Newbern, 96; Raleigh, 92; Weldon, 95.

THE TRUCKERS' HERE

Annual Meeting of Stockholders of East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association.

REPORTS OF THE OFFICERS

Resolution Adopted Praising the Railroads—Mr. W. E. Springer Re-Elected President—Officers, Directors and Committee.

The reception of the reports of the executive committee and officers, the passage of a resolution commending the transportation lines for the excellent manner in which they handled the truck and fruit crops during the past season and the election of a board of directors, were the features of the twelfth annual meeting of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association held in the court house yesterday afternoon, beginning at 2:45 o'clock. The president, Mayor W. E. Springer, presided over the deliberations of the body.

Owing to the fact that there was no business of special importance to be considered by the stockholders there was not a very large attendance, but those who were present manifested great interest in the reports and other matters and spoke encouragingly of the future of the organization, which has done so much for the development of this section of the State. Following the meeting of the stockholders the directors met and elected officers and an executive committee for the ensuing year.

On motion the roll call was suspended with and the secretary entered at once upon the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting. The minutes stood approved.

The annual address of President Springer was then delivered. The address, which reviewed the progress of the association since the organization 12 years ago, and made several timely suggestions for the consideration of the stockholders, is published in part in another column of today's paper, and will be read with interest by the truckers and fruit growers.

The report of the president was adopted with thanks and ordered spread upon the minutes of the meeting.

Lived Up to Agreement.

Following the report of the president, the executive committee's report was read by the secretary, Mr. H. T. Bauman. The report covered the work of the committee for the past year and was an interesting document. In the begnhing of the report the committee mentioned the fact that the Atlantic Coast Line had agreed and kept its promise that the minimum car load of strawberries for the season of 1908 was to be 236 crates, or two tiers high in refrigerator cars, and expressed the opinion that the minimum agreed upon had proved satisfactory to the shippers and growers as no complaints had been heard.

The executive committee considered that a satisfactory solution of the capacity of the refrigerator cars had been found. A reduction of five cents a crate in the strawberry freight rate to Baltimore and Washington was secured during the season.

Good Transportation Service.

In regard to transportation facilities the report stated that "this feature of the business and one of the most important, is happily summed up in very few words. The motive power and equipment was ample, and the movement was prompt and efficient. The service could hardly be improved upon, and we trust that the Atlantic Coast Line will keep to this standard for all time.

"The refrigerator service was satisfactory from the standpoint of refrigeration, the initial and re-icing of cars showing unusual care and attention. We must, however, enter a strong protest against the detention charges on these cars, and feel sure that the incoming board of directors will give this matter the serious consideration it deserves."

The express service was not altogether satisfactory, although it was better than the preceding year. The transportation service was good, but the delays in delivery proved a source of annoyance and inconvenience and a loss of money in some instances.

The board recommended the re-appointment of the agents on the several markets and that their number be increased wherever possible.

The telegraph and bulletin service maintained its high standard. Without the daily information the growers and shippers would have had no guide as to the market.

The report showed that the committee had succeeded in getting a great reduction in rates on vegetables, meaning a saving to the vegetable growers in this territory ten times more than the cost of membership. The report was accepted and ordered filed.

The Secretary's Report.

The secretary, Mr. H. T. Bauman, then submitted his report to the board of directors for the year ending August 18, 1908. The following is quoted from the report:

"The acreage of strawberries report-

TAFT'S FATAL MISTAKE.

"They say" that because Judge Taft has expressed the desire that J. Elwood Cox accept the nomination for Governor he may do so Whereupon the Greensboro Telegram asks if it has come to the point that Roosevelt can dictate to the Republicans of North Carolina whom they shall nominate as candidate for Governor?

Poor old Taft, he will never, so long as he remains in politics, hear the last of his having submitted his speech of acceptance to Roosevelt for revision and correction. We are surprised that in consequence of his misfortune in his purchases of saddle horses of late, some one has not advised him to let Roosevelt act for him in the selection of a horse, as the latter has such reputation as a "judge of horseflesh."

Taft's announcement that his speech would be submitted to Mr. Roosevelt for his approval before delivered was one of the worst blunders ever made by a politician. It was not necessary for him to do that in order to let the public know that he and the President were in accord on all political questions. Everyone knew he was Roosevelt's man for the nomination. It was not necessary for him to make that announcement as to his speech to convince the public of that fact, for it had been already fully established. Up to that time Taft's conduct as Judge, both of State and Federal court, as Governor General of the Philippines, as Secretary of War and as a man, had placed him high in the estimation of the public, including his political opponents; but that public statement caused many people to think that they had been mistaken in their estimation of the man—to think that he had not the force of character and the will power they had heretofore given him credit for possessing. Taft would today stand much higher before the American people had that declaration never been made, and it is going to cost him thousands of votes. Even men who do not object to Rooseveltism and would support it in Roosevelt, will hesitate to vote for a candidate for the high office of President who publicly makes the admission that his speech of acceptance of the nomination as candidate for that office must be revised by another before he gives it to the public as a declaration of his political views and tenets.

THE RAILROADS COMMENDED.

The railroad officials should feel much gratified at the resolution adopted yesterday by the stock-holders of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association at their annual meeting in this city, in regard to the efficient manner in which the railroads handled the fruit and vegetables shipped to northern markets from this section. It was a handsome acknowledgement on the part of the shippers of the good service rendered and shows the railroads are doing all in their power to aid the fruit and truck growers and that the latter take pleasure in acknowledging that fact. The resolution will tend to bring about still more friendly relations between the railroads and the shippers. Such resolution is something unusual in these days of politicians' warfare on railroads and corporate interests and it shows that the members of the association are willing to give the roads full credit for good service rendered.

WILL GET AHEAD OF HOUSE THIEVES.

Lumber is so scarce and consequently so high-priced in South Dakota that there has sprung up a set of thieves who steal the small residences put up by the homesteaders on the farms they enter. Men do not dare to leave their little shanties for a night. If they do so they are liable to find the next day that the house has been torn down and hauled off to some other homestead. A recent settler in that State who wished to visit his old home in Iowa got a head of the house thieves by actually taking his house along with him. He loaded as it stood on his wagon and started out on a three-hundred-mile ride. He will spend the balance of the Summer at his old home and in the Fall return to his Northwestern farm with his residence on his wagon. He will live in his house, cooking and sleeping, as well as spending his days in it while on the trip.

PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN EXPENSES.

The expenses of national campaigns are enormous. It is difficult to believe that so much money can be spent on them as is done these days. The Republican party, backed as it has been by the big trusts and corporations, has been able to get an almost unlimited supply. The first campaign in which really a big fund was secured was that of 1880, in which the Republicans raised one million dollars and the Democrats three hundred and fifty-five thousand dollars. In 1904 the Republicans' fund amounted to five million and the Democrats' to one and a quarter million. In an article in the Broadway Magazine Alfred Henry Lewis say these two parties will spend five million dollars on the present campaign. What is his authority for the statement we do not know.

We are in receipt of a catalogue of the North Carolina State Normal and Industrial College for the session of 1907-08. It contains a sketch of the institution with handsome illustrations of the grounds and buildings, also the course of study and list of students, and professors. This college is doing a splendid work for the young women of the State. North Carolina never made a better investment than when she put money in this college. The profits of the best kind she will reap therefrom for years to come cannot be estimated.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—An epidemic of wife desertion has struck the poorer districts of this city, according to reports which the Children's Aid Society has received from its visitors in the eight districts where the society maintains its branch stations of the sick childrens' mission. One visitor has found twelve deserted wives in one neighborhood within a month. The reason for these desertions, as explained by this visitor, Mrs. Edith K. MacArthur, of the East Eighty-eighth street station is "hard times." Mrs. MacArthur bases her assertion upon a comparison of the conditions in her neighborhood before the financial panic which threw hundreds of its residents out of work, and the conditions which exist there now.—New York Post.

—Gov. Haskell, of Oklahoma, has become Bryan's poet laureate, as well as his platform builder, treasurer, and financial rooter. Gov. Haskell has written several campaign songs. One of the little songs that bubbled from the lark of Oklahoma is entitled, "If You Don't See It In the Platform, You Needn't be Afraid," which has made a great hit in conservative communities. For the great rural constituency, Gov. Haskell has prepared a song called, "Drop in Your Dollar and Hear 'Em Holler, the Trusts Are on the Run!" Immediately after this popular hit had been rendered by Ham Bee at Sapulpa, the hat was passed around, and the embattled farmers rained $47.50 into it. One of Gov. Haskell's happy thoughts is "Bedfellows in the White House."—Washington Post.

—In the Bryan-Taft mix-up we plead ignorance. We look one day at the situation and conclude that Bryan will win out this time; that Taft is not the man; that he is playing this Me Too proposition and that the American manhood, sturdy, fearless and reliant will not stand for the Roosevelt imposition. So far as we are personally concerned it does not appeal to us; it makes us tired to see a big brained man like Taft rushing up to his master and submitting a little school boy speech. If we couldn't sit down and write a letter of acceptance or a speech of acceptance—without the aid or consent of any man on earth—to paraphrase Mr. Bryan's free silver proposition, we should feel and would feel that we were not big enough to hold the office we are trying to accept. That is the way we feel about it. Taft lost thousands of votes on that score.—Everything.

—Elaborate plans have been perfected by Frank H. Hitchcock, Republican National chairman, whereby he will know the weak and strong points of every "spell-binder" employed by the National committee. The orators are to be card-indexed. They are to be included in the system which Mr. Hitchcock, aided by William Hayward, of Nebraska, is putting into effect, to the wonderment of many of the old war-horses, who believe more in hand-shaking than card-indexing Under the plan devised by Mr. Hitchcock and Coleman DuPont, the chairman of the speakers' committee, the committee will know within a week or two after the spell-binder's brigade is turned loose on the country just which ones are worth keeping. They will know which ones can speak best on the tariff, on the injunction issue, and on all the other issues—in fact, will know which ones appeal most strongly to the workingman and which ones "take well" with high class audiences. In a nutshell, every one will have a card in the index, and on that card will be recorded all the information that anyone could desire about the speaker. Just a glance at it will enable the head of the speakers' bureau to send him where he can do the most good.—New York Herald.

PRESIDENT SPRINGER'S ADDRESS

Reviews Work of the Truck and Fruit Growers' Association.

Mayor W. E. Springer, president of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association, in his annual address to the stockholders yesterday afternoon said in part:

"To the Stockholders of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association:

"Gentlemen:—The close of another year in the business of this Association brings with it the duty on my part, as your president, of reporting to you upon the work which has been done, suggesting so far as I am able, such ideas as will make for the best interests of the Association and its members in the future, and calling to your attention the present condition of the Association.

"During the twelve years through which this Association has existed, its labors have been successful, and its achievements in the past is but an earnest of what it may accomplish in the future, if it be continued, and accorded the support from the individual members it so richly deserves. It would, in my opinion, be a calamity, not only to the truckers and our members of this Association, but as to the business interests generally of this entire section, to permit the work of this Association to come to an end. In the past its affairs have been in the hands of able and unselfish men, and as the accounts of its treasurer will show, the business of the Association has been most economically administered. From its small beginning its influence and its power have grown until today it has a well recognized place among those agencies which tend to the betterment of the farmer and the welfare of this entire section So much has it grown, until a discontinuance of its work now would, in my opinion, be a very serious blow to industrial, commercial and banking interests in Eastern North Carolina.

"As some detail of the immense interests which this Association has fostered and improved, I may say to you that since its organization there have been shipped from this territory 4,359,188 crates of strawberries; putting an average gross price of 10c per quart on these shipments, which I consider to be conservative, the total value of these shipments would be the stupendous sum of $13,949,401.60. Estimating the railroad, express, refrigerator and other transportation charges at an average of $1.00 per crate, we have for these items a total of $4,359,188.00. Deducting this amout from the total value above stated, leaves returns to the growers of $9,590,213.60. From this we should deduct the expenses of cultivation, picking, packing, crating, etc., which, I believe, may be conservatively estimated at an average of $1.10 per crate, or a total of $4,795,106.80, and deducting this amount from the total returns to the grower leaving a net to the grower of $4,795,106.80, in twelve years on strawberries alone. And it is to be remembered that the amount of $4,795,106.80, the estimated cost of cultivation, etc., is not sent away, but is distributed in comparatively small amounts all through the trucking section among the farm workers, the berry pickers and packers, the crate manufacturers and others, finding its way to our merchants and to our banks and in many instances furnishing capital with which our industrial enterprises are carried forward.

"And when we consider that as a result of the labors of this Association more than $4,000,000.00 have been paid to railroads, express companies, and for refrigeration and other transportation charges, it is practically plain that the position of this Association is such that these transportation interests cannot afford to ignore it in its efforts to better the condiion of its members, for to do so would be suicidal on their part.

"In giving these amounts I have not included the more than $4,000,000.00 realized from the production of vegetables generally, more than one-half of which has passed into the hands of our laboring people. During the twelve years of the Association's life, there have been shipped from this territory approximately between two million and two and one-half million packages of cantaloupes and vegetables, other than strawberries. Taking the lower estimate of two million packages as a basis, and estimating an average gross sale of $2.25 per package, we have in addition to the figures stated with reference to the strawberry crops the sum of $4,000,000.00, deducting an average expense of $1.25 per package leaves a net to the grower of $2,000,000.00, and this added to the net amount received from strawberries makes a grand total of $6,795,106.80.

"Now these figures are not mere speculative, but they are ascertained from the detailed records of the Association, covering the period of its existence. And the evidences are before you to show where this large amount of money has gone. The great increase in the value of your farming land, the improvements which you have placed upon the same, the comfortable appearance of your residences, your spacious barns, the High Schools and churches, banks, mercantile educational and moral, in fact all of the numerous evidences, material, educational and moral, witness the great value of the trucking industry in Eastern North Carolina. In my opinion no other one agency has done more to bring to our people these great advantages and blessings than the Eastern Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association.

"It is proper that I should state to you something of the cost of the work of this Association, so that you may know of the economy which its management has practiced. An inspection of the books of its treasurer shows that from the year 1899 to the year of 1908, a period of ten years, the receipts from all sources have been $26,092.32, and the disbursements for the same period of time have been $24,405.08, an average yearly receipt of $2,609.23, and an average yearly expenditure of $2,440.50. Each year the accounts of the Association have been carefully examined by a committee of your Board of Directors, and the fidelity to duty of its officers is attested by the fact that in no year has such a com-

THE TWO NEW WARSHIPS.

The Florida and the Utah—Designs to be Completed in September.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Aug. 19.—Designs for the two new battleships authorized at the last session of Congress probably will be completed and approved by September 10th. The plans for the vessels are now being completed in the light of the developments of the recent confercence of naval officers at Newport. Some suggestions of changes were made at that conference and the changes now are being incorporated in the designs. It is said that the changes are not radical, but, in the view of the naval constructors, are material to the new ships.

Upon completion of the plans they will be submitted to President Roosevelt for approval and it is said that by the middle of September proposals for the construction of one of the ships will be advertised for. The other ship is to be constructed at the Brooklyn navy yard by the Government. Pending completion and approval of designs for the ships which will be identical, no work will be done at the Brooklyn navy yard in preparation for the construction of the vessel which is to be built there. This ship will be the Florida. Her sister ship the Utah, will be constructed at some private yard. It is likely that the construction of the two vessels will be begun about the same time. A strong effort is being made to induce the authorities to equip the vessels, in their main batteries, with 13-inch guns. It is not improbable that this calibre of gun will be selected, although it is urged that the life of guns of that calibre is comparatively so brief as to render the adoption of so heavy a gun as unwarranted by all experience.

If the spinning operatives should be locked out the weavers also will be compelled to cease work, which would greatly increase the numbers affected.

AMERICAN TEAM AT HOME.

Winner of Marathon Race at Olympic Games Pleased.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York Aug. 19.—"I have nothing to say against the way the English people treated us," said John J. Hayes, winner of the Marathon race at the Olympic games upon his arrival here today on the steamer Oceanic. Hayes' view of the treatment given the American team of athletes at the games in London was echoed by J. P. Halstead, the Cornell runner, who was also a passenger on the Oceanic. That there were grounds for complaint by Americans was admitted by both athletes, but neither believed that the team from this country was intentionally discriminated against by anybody connected with the conduct of the sports in the stadium.

Hayes got a cordial reception at the pier from a party of friends assembled to greet them. He was asked once about the Marathon and in discussing the race he said: "They thought before the race that the Englishmen were the only ones that had a chance and they naturally were a great deal disappointed when they did not win. Morrisey was the only American who was mentioned before the race as having any show at all. I don't know anything about the assisting of Derando across the line. He was disqualified on the testimony of the judge. I myself, did not have to make any protest." Hayes did not care to say anything about the incidents connected with the awarding the prizes which has caused discussion.

"When anything was not particularly pleasant we did not care much," he said, "for we knew that it would be made up to us when we got home. I have nothing to say against the way the English people treated us. The English press does not represent the feeling of the English people. I have had a delightful time in England and an especially good one in Ireland. I come home perfectly satisfied."

Halstead, who was defeated by Sheppard in the heat of the 150 metre race, some comment being excited because the two best American runners were drawn in the same heat of the race said:

"I had a fine time and was very well treated. I do not believe that the Englishmen were intentionally unfair. I think the fact that I was drawn against Sheppard in the first heat was simply the luck of the draw."

ed planted this season was 4,783 1-2 acres, a decrease from 1907 of some 500 acres. The output this season was 291,808 crates, divided as follows: Refrigerator 257,670 crates; express, 34,138 crates, an increase over last season of 47,726 crates. The total number of refrigerator cars used last season was 898, this season 1,094, an increase of 198 cars. The average loading last season was 235 crates to the car, this season 236 crates. Last season the average pick per acre was 46 crates, this season it was 61 crates. The former was on a 50 per cent crop and the latter on a 60 per cent. crop. The average net returns for 1907 was $71 per acre; this season $103.70 per acre.

"In 1907 we shipped 244,582 crates, average sales $3.60 per crate, making the returns $733,746, less expenses, $1.50 per crate, leaving a net to the growers of $366,873. This season we shipped 291,808 crates, average sales, $3.20 per crate, making the returns $933,785, less expenses, $1.50 per crate, $496,073.60, which shows an increase to the growers of $129,200.60 for 1908. The increase in the number of crates shipped was 4,248."

"There was a large increase in the shipment of vegetables, lettuce, etc. from the various sections, the express showing a total movement for 1908 of 79,121 packages; the refrigerator 94,281 packages; in ventilated box cars, approximately $2.25 per package, making $468,905.50, less expenses estimated at 75 cents per package, $156,301.50, leaving a net to the grower of $312,603."

The value of the strawberry and vegetable crops for 1908 was as follows: Strawberries, $3.20 per crate, $9 33.785.60; vegetables, etc., $2.25 per package, $468,904.50, giving a total of $1,402,690.10.

The expense of raising these crops and preparing them for shipment was about as follows: Strawberries, $1.50 per crate, $437,712; vegetables, 75 cents per package, $156,301.50, giving a total of $594,013.50, this deducted from the sales leaves a balance net to the growers of $808,676.60.

The results from the strawberry crop is the world's record and as the reports says: "An achievement that reflects the greatest credit upon the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association, an organization that has been instrumental in the largest measure in bringing about this grand result."

Railroads Commended.

The following resolution was offered and was unanimously passed: "Believing that railroads and other corporate interests have their rights along with other people, and contending that we should be as quick to commend the transportation companies for good and efficient service as we are to condemn them for their short comings, it is therefore,

"Resolved, That this association congratulates the Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard and other railroads and refrigerator companies upon the model service rendered the strawberry and vegetable shippers during the season of 1908 with the request that the same be duplicated each succeeding season hereafter."

Board of Directors Elected.

The stockholders then elected the following named as the directors, the old board, with the addition of two members, being re-elected: J. A. Brown and G. F. Horton, of Chadbourn; William Struthers and D. Boughner, Grist; R. C. Powell, Whiteville; J. S. Williamson, Cerro Gordo; J. G. White, Wards; S. J. Sarvis, Mt. Tarbor; S. H. RIOT AMONG SOLDIERS

Soldiers Passing Through Atlanta Create Serious Disturbance—Police Powerless to Quell it. Troops Called.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Aug. 19.—Late today police reserves were called to the terminal station to quell a riot that broke out among United States regular en route from Fort Slocum to the Pacific coast.

When the local police officers were unable to curb the soldiers a call was made upon Fort McPherson for troops and Captain Bankhead with a company of regulars responded hurriedly.

The trouble started early in the afternoon when a number of soldiers en route to the Far East broke out of their cars which were on the sidetrack at the terminal station and, it is said, began annoying passengers entering trains. Officer Hill, of the local police force, knocked one of the soldiers down and then the trouble became general. Colonel Thompson, of the Gulf Department, was notified and he responded and later, Fort McPherson was called upon.

During the fighting a soldier named Frank Smith was seriously stabbed. Joseph A. Bleak, another soldier, was placed under arrest.

At 6:30 o'clock the officers had the men under control and under guard in their cars and it is believed the guard is sufficient to prevent further trouble.

The wildest excitement prevailed at the terminal station during the riot and many women became hysterical.

FLEET REACHED SYDNEY.

Thousands of Australians Anxiously Awaited Arrival.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Sydney, N. S. W., Aug. 20.—Early this morning a thin veil of smoke on the horizon signalled to the watchers on the coast the approach of the American warships and at 5:35 o'clock official notification was sent out that the fleet had been sighted. It was yet 20 miles outside of Sydney harbor, but this word, which had been awaited eagerly by tens of thousands stirred Australians like a call to arms, and almost instantly those who had not already left the city to take up points of vantage along the bays were moving in droves to line the quays, the roof tops and other places on the harbor front, to watch the coming of the guardship of the new world.

The day broke bright and clear and so intense was the interest in the American ships of war that half the populace remained awake all night and thousands and thousands of them long before the night was over, were on their way to the hill tops outside of the city limits, where they congregated seemingly in unbroken lines along the coast from Bondi Beach to Manly.

It is estimated that hardly less than half a million people assembled to give the visitors a royal welcome. Sydney harbor with its innumerable bays, coves and branches never looked more beautiful nor did the American sailors ever witness a more inspiring sight than that which met their eyes as the white ships came through the channel past the great headlands into Port Jackson.

A hundred thousand people, the greatest single assemblage of all, gathered on the south heads where a magnificent view of the whole scene was to be had. Hundreds of craft of all kinds moved up and down and even at that early hour all the waters, with the exception of the fair way and the anchorages being dotted with little and big vessels decorated in every conceivable manner with flags and bunting.

In perfect alignment, the flagship Connecticut leading with Rear Admiral Sperry on the Bridge, the warships came out of the horizon, first a little smoke showing and then the hulls, low down in the distance.

Passing in through the Sydney heads in double column, at intervals 1000 yards, the ships looked to have a world of speed and power under their listing sides. Their fleet was attended by convoy steamers and was greeted with a roar of salutes from the forts, as it steamed slowly along. The thousands ashore and afloat added their cheers to swell the noisy welcome and countless British and American flags were flung to the breeze and were still waving long after the anchors had been swung from the sides.

The American ships boomed forth a salute to the port and as soon as they were safely moored at their anchorage, official visits were exchanged.

Hector France, the French novelist and publicist, is dead.

mittee found anything to justify censure or merit criticism.

"In view of the present condition of the Association, I do not think it is out of place to repeat in part what I said to you at the last annual meeting: 'The most disastrous year we have had since our organization was in 1905. When the bolt struck us, all was confusion and uncertainty, and not until this Association acted through its legal department and the advice of its officers was a ray of hope forthcoming. The advice of our attorney to growers at this critical stage was to pick their berries and take them to the railroad agents and get bills of lading, saved many growers from absolute loss, and they will tell you so today. They did not know which way to turn until the Association spoke through its legal department and its Board of Directors. The representatives of the Railroad company, the refrigerator car company and a committee from your Association came together and agreed upon a basis of settlement, and upon this basis there was paid direct to claimants among the growers approximately $135,000.00. The majority of these claims were settled promptly, and our people were relieved from many pressing obligations. Claims filed and collected through our central office by Mr. H. T. Bauman, secretary and business agent, since 1899, amount to $29,839.19, the total of which was paid to claimants in full.'

"'Again, when we were threatened with a tie-up with all Sunday trains of perishables through Virginia, by a bill before the Assembly of that State, prohibiting the running of Sunday freight trains, your executive committee appeared before the committee in charge of this bill, and plead your cause with success. In 1897 and in 1898, when this Association was fully organized with all its departments, we were faced with combined railroad and refrigeration rates on strawberries of from $1.00 lowest to $1.87 highest per crate. In 1899 your Board of Directors went before the railroad and refrigerator authorities, and insisted that these prohibitive rates be reduced. In 1900 the rate was reduced through our efforts and today stands at 71 1-2 lowest to $1.24 1-2 highest, per crate. We have always contended that even these rates are entirely too high, but have been repeatedly advised by the railroad company that the extra equipment and expedited service could not be maintained on a lower rate.' However, we have obtained from the railroad company a minimum on strawberries during the past season of 236 crates. Also, a reduction in the freight rate to Washington and Baltimore of five cents per crate .

"After this labor of years the Association and its members are now within sight of relief from unjust minimum car loads, rate discrimination and imperfect service, and your Board of Directors have these matters constantly under consideration and are making all reasonable efforts for properly adjusting the same.

"To show how vital the necessity of the continued existence of this Association to our truckers is, I will quote from the experiences of the great Peach Growers' Industry, of the State of Georgia, this season, where on account of not having some organization to handle and look after the marketing and distribution of the immense crops of peaches raised this season, the growers have become almost bankrupt, and a large number of these growers are now considering very seriously cutting down their orchards and putting their farms to some other purposes. Now, as the Georgia peach industry stands in about the same relation as our strawberries and vegetables do, without the care and influence of your Association, it requires no mind reader to see what will become of this great industry of ours without the guidance and fostering care of your Association. The great crop of peaches in the State of Georgia for the season of 1908 has been gathered and shipped to the Eastern and Western markets. The returns on these shipments have in many instances been very unsatisfactory, and in quite a number of cases heavy losses have been sustained.

"The whole trouble about marketing the big Georgia crop of lucious fruit this year at a good profit to growers, has been in a failure to properly systematize the distribution of shipments. Every individual who grew peaches was left to his own resources as to shipments, and consequently, too many cars went to the leading cities of the East, and congested these markets.

"I want to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the valuable and hearty co-operation of your Executive Committee and Board of Directors.

"Your treasurer has been a most faithful and painstaking official, always on the lookout for the best interest in handling your finances.

"Now, as to your secretary and business agent, Mr. Bauman, I fail to find words sufficient to express my appreciation of his invaluable services to me as your president, and his services to your Association cannot be measured in words of praise. A man that knows his business, ever diligent and painstaking, and always ready to take up the smallest matter and follow same to a successful conclusion. I commend him to your hearty consideration. The results of his work and labor in your Association will be in evidence for many years to come.

"It is with pleasure I can recommend to the members of our Association, also to every truck grower in Eastern Carolina, the "East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Journal,' edited and conducted by Mr. Z. W. Whitehead. This Journal is doing a great work for our people and particularly the Association, which we are all so much interested in. Give it your most loyal and hearty support."

The ninth annual convention of the National Negro Businessmen's League opened yesterday in Baltimore in the Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Episcopal church, Dolphin and Division and Division streets with Booker T. Washington, the president of the organization, in the chair. The convention will continue today and tomorrow.

No time has been fixed for Jenkins' preliminary hearing. The case appears to be postponed indefinitely. Jenkins is still detained on the receiving ship Franklin.

Ten of the fourteen men charged with participating in the attack made on the county jail at Norfolk last week by a mob that sought to lynch the negroes Henry Smith and Brack King charged with criminal assault on aged Mrs. Powell, have been fined $100 and costs with sixty days in jail. The others were discharged. All of those convicted appealed and were bailed.

ASSOCIATION IS ORGANIZED.

New York Democrats in Support of National and State Tickets.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 19.—More than 100 former Southern Democrats, now New Yorkers, at a meeting held here today organized under the name of "Association of Southern Democrats of New York," in support of the National and State Democratic tickets. John R. Dunlap was elected temporary chairman. A committee was appointed to wait on National Chairman Mack and State Chairman Conners and assure them of the Association's allegiance to the party.

POINTING THE BONE.

Queer Superstition of the Native Blacks of Australia.

The native blacks of Australia are steeped in superstition. A black fellow will on no account go near the spot where another black has been buried. He has a deep rooted aversion to one particular bird—the wagtail—because, he says, "him all day talk, talk along a white feller, tellum all about black feller," and no opportunity is lost of killing these little birds.

Many tribes "bury" their dead by sticking them up into the forks of trees and there leaving them till the flesh has either dropped or been taken, leaving the bones clean. These bones are then taken down, the larger ones buried and the smallest handed round as keepsakes to those nearly related to the deceased. Should one black fellow wish the death of a rival or enemy he points the bone at him. This means that he takes one of his late relation's bones from his dilly bag and points it, in the presence of witnesses, at the man he wishes to get rid of, all the time pouring forth threats and curses.

Strange as it may seem, the one pointed at will often languish and eventually die, perhaps in a month, perhaps in a year, for no sooner is the bone pointed than he makes up his mind to die, and there is no saving him.—London Standard.

A Fortunate Man.

One day a young matron to the market place did go, where she bought an oyster plant, then set it out to grow. Said she, "Next winter we'll have oysters, fresh oysters every day, and what a saving it will be, with not a cent to pay. Oh, but hubby should be thankful it was his lot in life to get such a saving woman for his own little wife."—Chicago News a "companion bottle" is almost essential. Traveling is fatiguing work and an occasional "nip" is often appreciated. But you want to carry the best and purest of liquors, the kind that does no injury to the system and leaves no bad after-effects. That is the kind we keep—the best grade of Liquors distilled. Our Wines are equally pure and superior in grade.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Fayetteville Observer: Yesterday in the late afternoon, an old colored woman was walking along Hillsboro street under the elm trees by the side of the walk when a black or whip snake fell out of a tree and fanded near her feet. She was so frightened that for awhile she was paralyzed.

—The Robesonian: Miss Mattie Gibson, who was for some time a nurse at the Thompson Hospital and who returned to her home near Laurinburg last Spring, will be married on the 26th of this month to a Mr. White, of Trinity, Randolph county. The wedding will be a quiet home affair and only a few friends of the contracting parties will be present.

—Newbern Journal: The mosquito is the worst pest in this section and it is worse this year than ever before. The myraids that infest any place do not breed at any distint place but they come from near by places and it is up to all who can to prevent their increasing. The matter is easy enough if taken with concerted and determined action an can reduce the percentage of disease very perceptably.

—Greensboro Telegram: Colonel Bennett H. Young, of Louisville, will be at the Veterans' reunion at Winston this week. He is the Kentucky colonel who was such an interesting character in the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly when it met in this city several months ago. Greensboro veterans will go to Winston in increased numbers for Colonel Young's being there.

—Staunton, Va., Aug. 18.—Miss Mildred Crawford, aged sixteen, living near this city, had the novel and some what thrilling experience of sleeping with a rattlesnake. Her brother entered her room and found a three-foot rattler coiled on the bed by the side of his sister. He succeeded in rescuing her from the dangerous predicament without disturbing the snake. Then he killed and skinner the rattler, and now the girl wears the snake skin around her waist as a belt.

—Raleigh, Aug. 18.—Dr. Thomas P. Harrison, Professor of English at Davidson College, accepts chair of English at the Agricultural and Mechanical College here made vacant by the promotion of Dr. D. H. Hill to the presidency. Dr. Harrison is a Ph. D. graduate of Johns Hopkins and one of the ablest and most experienced teachers in North Carolina. For 12 years he has been at Davidson College and is regarded by faculty and students as one of its strongest men there.

—Charlotte Chronicle: Miss Eliza Wilkes, sister of the late Captain John Wilkes, of this city, died Saturday at noon at Winchester, Va. where she had gone to spend the summer with her sister, Miss Jane Wilkes. She had been in ill health for several years. Miss Wilkes was 72 years of age. She is survived by a brother, Major Edmund Wilkes, f Salt Lake City, and Miss Jane Wilkes, of Washington. Mrs. J. Frank Wilkes and Mrs. R. L. Jones left Saturday night to attend the funeral.

—Henderson Gold Leaf: Mr. H. C. Heitman, of Lexington, a young inventor who patented an improvement for mail pouches for which, it is said, he is to receive $85,000 from the government, now comes forward with a patent for a "joltless buggy." The buggy is equipped with an arrangement to counteract any jolt caused from the wheels striking rocks, holes or any other obstacle of reasonable size. The wheels might strike and pass over a rock eight inches high and the jolt would scarcely be felt, and the seat will remain in one position as though the buggy was running on perfectly smooth road.

—Charlotte Chronicle: If there is one man in the city whom nearly every man, woman and child knows that man is Mr. Moses Thomas, keeper of Elmwood Cemetery. For the first time in 40 years—or ever since his associations with the gruesome duties of his gruesome job—Mr. Thomas has left the toils and troubles of his post for a short vacation. Even in this event, Mr. Moses Thomas will not venture far away from the seat of his labors, and has only gone to the quiet banks of the historic old Catawba, where he will spend his short rest spell among relatives and friends of other days.

KNIGHT'S EXCURSION TO COLUMBIA.

Knight's excursion to Columbia on Monday, August 24th, offers an opportunity that may never present itself again to see the new, beautiful city, which, Phoenix like, sprung from the ashes in which General Sherman left it on February 16th, 1856, when with the exception of one small cottage on Main street not a building was left on that street, everything on it being burned for one and a half miles, and in a belt from a quarter to a half mile wide. Eighty-four squares containing 366 acres and 1,300 homes were destroyed. Go to the new and prosperous Columbia of today and wonder at its phenomenal rise.

Knights' excursions are patronized by the best people everywhere and you will make no mistake in going. Train leaves A. C. L. station Monday, August 24th, at 7:00 A. M. and will leave Columbia on the return Tuesday at 9:00 P. M. There will be separate cars for white and colored passengers. The round trip from this point is only $2.50. au 12-to-24.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 19.—The cotton market was nervous and unsettled all day, closing steady, net unchanged to 13 points lower. Sales for the day were estimated at 125,000 bales.

The market opened steady at a decline of 8 to 10 points in response to lower cables, the break in the Liverpool spot market, a favorable interpretation of the weather map, local bear pressure and Southern selling. After showing a net loss of about 13 to 15 points on the active months, prices were steadied by Wall Street support and covering with October advancing from 9.16 to 9.22. Later the market eased off again under continued Southern offerings and the lowest point was reached during the afternoon when October sold at 9.15, or 16 points net lower. The close was up from the lowest on covering. August was idle most of the day and ruled relatively firm between 10.10 and 10.15. Private cables reported that the mills of Oldham, Ashton and Rochdale in the Lancashire districts would close for fourteen days, and advices from Liverpool reported the possibility of labor troubles in the spinning trade. Many buyers of cotton goods are said to be in this city and a somewhat better business is reported. The next Government report on conditions will be issued on September 1, and the first ginning report on September 8.

Receipts at the ports today 4,358 bales against 3,953 last week and 1,977 last year. For the week 40,000 bales against 24,037 last week and 10,978 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 415 bales against 622 last year and at Houston 6,853 against 1,182 last year.

Spot closed quiet 5 points decline. Middling uplands 10.35; middling gulf 10.60; sales none. Futures opened and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 19.—Buying in the dry goods jobbing houses was more active for the day and in the primary dry goods market the trading was a little more active. Converters are beginning to purchase again in small lots and printers are taking some goods for early delivery. Silk ribbons are strong in the primary markets and piece goods are generally slow. There is a definite improvement in the ordering o fhosiery and to a less extent of underwear.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 19.—Briefly summarized today's stock market was dull, narrow and meaningless. Trading was very much curtailed and it required but a cursory glance at the list of buyers and sellers to make clear the professional character of the day's operations. In its technical features the market continued to hold its strength of the past fornight. There exists a very considerable short interest, larger perhaps than is generally supposed and conditions in the broad sense seem opposed to any serious decline. On the other hand, apart from the future piling up of money here and the brilliant crop prospects, which may be said to have passed the crucial stage, there is little in the way of news to stimulate the trading. There was sympathetic weakness in all the active issues and net losses for the day were the almost invariable rule. The only feature of the money market was the offering of call loans at 3-4 per cent. The general tone was easier on larger offerings.

Railroad bonds were heavy in sympathy with the stock list. Total sales, par value, were $2,436,000. Government bonds held steady. Total sales today were 604,100 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 19.—Money on call easy 3-4 to 1 1-4 per cent., ruling rate, closing bid and offered at 1 per cent. Time loans easier on large offerings, sixty days 1 1-2 to 2 per cent., and ninety days 2 1-2 to 2 3-4 per cent, six months 3 1-2 to 3 3-4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 3 to 4 per cent. Sterling exchange steady, with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8480 to 4.8495 for sixty day bills and at 4.8640 for demand. Commercial bills 4.83 7-8 to 4.84 1-2. Bar silver 51 1-2. Rock Candy Syr. vs. Thin People

Thin and delicate people would do well to remember that there is nothing more health-giving and tissue-building than PURE ROCK CANDY SYRUP. It is exceedingly wholesome and nutritious. Combined with the pure juices of various fruits, the combination is not only nutritious and wholesome, but very palatable.

Many people, and not a few in Wilmington, mix rock candy syrup with vanilla or some other favorite flavor and use it for eating with batter cakes, waffles and the like, and there is nothing more delicious, palatable and nutritious than such a combination for breakfast. Breakfast foods and such "fodder" are simply not in it with rock candy syrup.

FEAR AND TERROR AMONG NEGROES

In Springfield, Ill., Over Order For Removal of Part of The Troops.

NEGROES LEAVING THE CITY

Through Fear of Further Attack From the Mob—Authorities Insist There is No Ground for Further Alarm—Another Mine.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 19.—Fear and terror prevailed in the homes of Springfield negroes tonight. The departure of two regiments of infantry today and the announcement that two more organizations will be sent home tomorrow caused consternation among the colored residents.

"The mob will be here sure if those soldiers go away," they said, and delegations were hastily organized and sent to the State, county and city officials to protest against a relaxation of the military regime. The authorities' efforts to quiet this feeling were only partially successful and in many a humble home there was no sleep before dawn. Every footfall or challenge of a sentry sent quivers of alarm among the anxious watchers.

Scores of the terror stricken blacks sought refuge in the arsenal. Early in the evening almost twice as many applications for shelter had been received there as on previous nights and about 300 negroes curled up in the corners of the balcony sleeping on the floor or curled up in chairs.

The exodus of negroes, which had begun to abate, was renewed. Trains and trolley cars were used by those fortunate enough to possess a little money, but many of the unfortunates took to the road, tramping across the country in a drizzling rain until exhaustion forced them to seek rest in cornfields or in wood lots. The children and aged, who were driven to the open, suffered heavily and it is feared that many of them will succumb to the hardships.

Adjutant General Scott insists that there is no ground for the fear of the negroes. He said: "There are plenty of troops tonight and the force that will be available tomorrow, about 1,500 men, can certainly protect the city against any mob that may form. Then, too, the presence of the large body of soldiers was inciting some sections of the community and there was an element of trouble there that could not be overlooked."

This opinion was endorsed in other quarters. It was pointed out that the rioting was overcome before the last 1,500 men had reached Springfield, and that the attempts to renew lawlessness had occurred before the soldiers were thoroughly familiar with the territories which they are now covering. It is asserted that 1,500 men can easily hold the advantage that the larger body of troops has gained and the addition of cavalry has increased the mobility of troops to such a degree that the presence of the full force is absolutely unnecessary.

The special grand jury today examined nearly two score witnesses but made no return of its proceedings. Unusual precautions as to secrecy have been taken and the identity and testimony of the persons who have appeared to give information against rioters have been carefully guarded.

Assistant States Attorney Wines, who has charge of the grand jury work said tonight that some indictments or other return may be made tomorroy from the grand jury.

Another coal mine was closed today because the whites and negroes refused to work alongside each other underground. The shaft is in the neighborhood of the two which closed yesterday and the trouble was due to the same cause, each race claiming that the members of the other were armed. The Union officials are working in conjunction with the mine owners in an attempt to overcome the difficulty, but no strict measures will be adopted because of the effect that they might have upon the situation.

The troops passed a comfortless day and night. A steady rain began in the morning and continued into the night. Some of the companies quartered on the State House grounds moved cots into the corridors of the building, but only a comparatively few of the troops were thus equipped and the others preferred to sleep on the rain-soaked turf rather than on marble tiling. Patrol duty was miserable work under the weather conditions.

Threatening annoymous letters which began to arrive at the offices of officials as soon as the repressive measures began, increased in number today. No attention has been paid to these missives, but several merchants, who have received similar communications are beginning to feel alarmed. One grocer was warned that his place of business would be burned unless he discontinued the sale of provisions to negroes. Tonight a small fire broke out in his establishment but its location precluded the idea that it was incendiary.

Another recipient of anonymous threats is J. B. Perkins, secretary of the Odd Fellows Building Association and a prominent member of the Lincoln Jefferson League, which joined in the meeting at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. The letter writers took exception too his action in hiring a negro boy as elevator conductor in the Odd Fellows building.

Mrs. Wardwell, the quarantined leper, widow of General W. L. Wardwell, escaped from her quarters last night at Tombstone, Ariz., and she is supposed to have boarded a Southern Pacific train for California.

MIGHTY STAMPEDE FOR GOV. JOHNSON

By The Delegates to The Minnesota Democratic State Convention.

UNANIMOUS NOMINATION

For Governor Made After One of the Wildest Scenes Ever Witnessed in a State Convention—He Has Nothing to Say.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 19.—The Democratic State convention today stampeded for Governor John A. Johnson and nominated him for re-election with a rush after a remarkable demonstration. When the roll-call of Aitkin county yielded to Ramsey county (St. Paul) and Mayor Daniel W. Lawler, of St. Paul, took the platform and at the conclusion of ten words he mentioned the name of John A. Johnson.

One of the wildest demonstrations ever seen in a Democratic State convention in Minnesota ensued. Hennepin county (Minneapolis) tore up its standard and started a wild march about the hall. Everybody else seemed to join in. Some Democrats grouped themselves on the stage about the picture of Governor Johnson. Band music added to the pandemonium and delegates cheered for Governor Johnson.

Frank Day, the Governor's private secretary, immediately rushed out of the building to find a telephone in order to get into communication with the Governor at the Capitol. Minute after minute sped by, but still the delegates yelled excitedly, waved banners, carried the picture of Governor Johnson about the hall and put on a duplication of the demonstration given to Bryan at Denver.

The convention was wild for Johnson. "Marching through Georgia," and "Cheer, Cheer the Gang's all Here" were played in rapid succession by the band and still the crowd yelled. The galleries which were well filled in the afternoon, joined in the demonstration. The result was inevitable. Nothing could stop the tide of enthusiasm and as soon as the effervesence had subsided sufficiently the Governor was named unanimously for gubernatorial candidate.

St. Paul, Aug. 19.—When asked tonight if he would accept the nomination conferred on him by the Democratic State convention, Governor John A. Johnson said: "I have not been officially notified of my nomination, so have nothing to say."

SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER

Subject of Mr. Lawshe's Address Before National Editorial Association.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—Hon. A. L. Lawshe, Third Assistant Postmaster general, was the principal speaker at today's sessions of the National Editorial Association. His subject was "The Attitude of the Postoffice Department toward Newspapers and Second Class Matter."

Mr. Lawshe outlined the laws relating to second class matter. He stated that the daily newspapers furnish a little over 40 per cent of the second class mail and the weekly and other papers a little over 15 per cent. He said that he regarded the present rates on second class matter as justified, but that he was not in favor of an increase in the rates. He denied that the express companies carry newspaper chaper than does the Postoffice Department, for, he stated, the express companies do not handle it in the same way that the Postoffice Department does.

Mr. Lawshe said there was a great demand for penny postage and that the second class mailing privilege, he brought back to its original basis, as intended by Congress; and, with the elimination of a few other costly abuses, he predicted that the publishers of the United States may continue to enjoy the present second class rates of postage and that the business men of the country may secure in due season the cent an ounce rate.

The speaker said that the enforced return of undelivered copies at the third class rate, at the expense of the offending publisher is a reform advocated by many wide awake publishers and one which he had recommended.

BAY STATE TEAM WON.

Led the Field in the Shoot For Herrick Trophy Yesterday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Camp Perry, Aug. 19.—The Massachusetts team led the field today in the shoot for the Herrick trophy which is being conducted by the Ohio Rifle Association. This prize was put up last year for the first time by ex-Governor Herrick, of Ohio, and is for 800, 900 and 1,000 yard shooting, open to all army teams.

Last year the honor was captured by the Ohio National Guard. Today only 800 and 900 yard ranges were shot. The 1000 yard stage was continued until next Friday morning. This was today's only event, but it brought forth some excellent marksmanship. Wise and Upton of the Massachusetts team, Winder, of Ohio, and Mayber, of Pennsylvania, made perfect scores on the 800 yard target.

The battleship Montana, which has been on a cruise from Norfolk, Va., since August 6, arrived yesterday and will standardize her propellers on the Rockland, Md., course tomorrow. Captain Alfred Reynolds is in command.

HAIN'S DEFENSE WILL BE INSANITY

People at Flushing Received Coroner's Verdict With Demonstration.

TWO WITNESSES CALLED

Captain Hains Showed Excitement When Pointed Out As Slayer of Annis—Jenkins Hains Makes Statement.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 19.—After being out twenty-two minutes a corner's jury tonight brought in a verdict that William E. Annis who was killed last Saturday at Bayside, L. I., came to his death as the result of pistol shot wounds inflicted by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., U. S. A., aided and abetted by Thornton Jenkins Hains, his literary brother.

There was a greater crowd than the little court room in the town hall at Flushing, L. I., could hold when the inquest began and hundreds of men and women awaited the verdict outside, although both the defense and the prosecution did not consider the inquest of much importance since Captain Hains admits the shooting and there were many witnesses to it.

It was believed the jury would render its verdict without leaving the room, but when the jurors remained out for more than twenty minutes the spectators, many of whom were members of the Bayside Yacht Club, became restless and there were audible demands that a verdict be instantly rendered.

When the jurmen filed into the room and the foreman announced the verdict there was a demonstration. Coroner Ambled had to rap with his gavel and court officers had to caution the spectators for an attempt was made to applaud the verdict. Major John Powell Hains, who has come here from Chicago to stand by his brother, was sitting beside Captain Hains, gripped his brother by the arm and whispered words of encouragement, assuring him that the inquest would have little bearing on his case.

In the excitement a crowd gathered around Thornton Jenkins Hains and began to question him as to the tragedy in which he played such an important part. He was asked if he felt justified in holding a crowd at bay with a revolver while his brother shot down Annis. Before Hains could reply John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the brothers rushed to his side and shouted: "No, no, don't answer that question."

In his efforts to prevent Hains from answering the lawyer clapped his hands over his client's mouth and was probably just in time to prevent the prisoner from committing himself.

Only two witnesses were called. They were Charles H. Robert, of Flushing, who testified that he was standing on the club house float when he heard the report of a pistol shot and saw Captain Hains in a kneeling position clinging to the drooping body of Annis as he emptied the contents of his revolver into it and Coroner's physician Walter G. Frey who testified that Annis came to his death from the bullet wounds. Dr. Frey said there were nine initial wounds and twelve secondary wounds, which would indicate that the Captain fired nine shots.

In cross examining Mr. Robert, Lawyer McIntyre asked him if Captain Hains had finished shooting when he tried to go to his aid and was stopped by Thorton Hains who held a revolved in his face. The witness said that the shooting had not ceased and that he would have had time to interfere had not Thornton Hains prevented him.

Mr. McIntyre asked him if he noted the expression in Thornton Hains' eyes at the moment, but before the question could be answered District Attorney Darrin objected and was sustained.

Prior to his giving his testimony Mr. Robert was asked to identify the prisoners. When he pointed out to Captain Hains as the slayer the captain put his hands over his face and seemed to be greatly excited. This caused comment in the court, for he was heretofore remained wholly unperturbed apparently.

Before going out one of the jurymen demanded that additional witnesses be called, but Coroner Ambler refused to comply and ordered the jury to decide upon a verdict. His charge simply cited the lines to which the jurors must confine themselves in considering the case. There were about forty witnesses in the room but they were not needed on the stand.

McIntyre's Statement.

Before the inquest John F. McIntyre, chief of counsel for the Hains brothers made the following statement to an Associated Press representative:

"In answer to the statement made by Mrs. Hains that she was made to sign a confession while under the influence of drugs, I wish to say that my clients and their distinguished father have told me that there were four witnesses present when the confession was made, one of them being a prominent New York lawyer. These witnesses will testify at the trial. I am also told that Mrs. Hains talked to several persons regarding the incidents related in the confession some time before she made it and these persons will be witnesses.

"When Captain Hains was called back from the Philippines he questioned his wife regarding rumors he had heard about her and he became convinced that his suspicions were wrong. Later, he said, facts developed which made him demand the confession from his wife, and she made it.

"Captain Hains denies that he sent letters to Annis challenging him to a duel. Stories to this effect are absurd.

"What unbalanced Captain Hains' mind was the counter charges made by Mrs. Hains in a suit she filed in answer to his suit for divorce. Captain Hains believed the statements made by Mrs. Hains in the counter suit were dictated by Annis."

Major John Powell Hains also made a statement to the Associated Press before the inquest. He was asked if he thought his brother was justified in shooting Annis without giving him a chance to protect himself.

"I can best answer that question by recalling an incident that happened to me at Fort Riley," he said, "I was about to put on my boot one morning when I found a snake in it. I quickly drew my revolver and shot the snake. It is the same with my brother; I do not believe he should have given Annis a chance."

"Knowing what you do of the case, would you do the same thing?" he was asked.

"I most certainly would," he answered emphatically.

"Is it true, as the district attorney says that your brother Thornton Jenkins instigated the shooting?" he was asked.

"Not at all," he replied. "For a long time Thornton and myself have tried to dissuade our brother from killing Annis, for the sake of our gray-haired father and mother. Out of consideration for them our brother restrained himself, but finally the strain became too great and he acted. He would have killed Annis sooner had it not been for this.

BRYAN'S TRICK MULE.

It Arrives at Fairview and a Newspaper Man is First Victim.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 19.—The advent today of the trick mule, which was presented to W. J. Bryan by the Minnesota State Agricultural Society, was made memorable because of an incident which occurred this afternoon. The mule and an Eastern newspaper correspondent were the central figures. When announcement was first made of the fact that the animal had been presented, the particular correspondent served notice that he would be the first to ride it.

Today the opportunity came with the result that the correspondent tonight is nursing a sore head and bruised leg, suffered when hurled into the air by the mule, which had been trained to permit no one to ride it. Mr. Bryan witnessed the proceedings and exhibited a good deal of solicitude for the writer. The mule was taken back into the stable and there is every likelihood that it will not be permitted to display any more of its talents.

The day otherwise was without incident. When Mr. Bryan starts on his ten-days' trip tomorrow night, he will have completed nearly all the set speeches that he will make during that time. He denied himself to all visitors, desiring to utilize every available moment in completing his work.

FOREST FIRES RAGING AGAIN

Twenty Square Miles are Ablaze in Koksilah District.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 19.——Forest fires on Vancouver island are extending in every direction and the latest reports indicate that the settlements are threatened. In Kohsilah district twenty square miles are ablaze.

The fate of the scattered ranchers is unknown. The flames are advancing on Goldsteam and 150 inhabitants are backfiring to save the villages.

Several lumber camps have been wiped out. A dense pall of smoke hangs over fifty square miles and only a soaking rain can arrest the march of the conflagration. Some of the richest timber lands in the province have been laid to waste and a severe blow has been dealt to the umber industry.

Telegraph and telephone messages state that the eastern side of Bowen island is a mass of fire. A settlement of eighty souls were scattered about the section which has been swept by the flames but it is impossible to ascertain their fate.

REPENTENCE TOO LATE.

Fearful Result of Quarrel Between a Man and His Wife.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 19.—Believing her husband was about to leave her forever, Mrs. Edward Hacker committed suicide today by shooting herself. Her husband, who had bade her good bye after a series of altercations and had started from The Hague Court apartment house where they lived, heard the shot and ran back to their flat. Upon beholding the lifeless body of his wife he was overcome with grief and remorse and locking the door of the apartment he picked up the revolver with which she had killed herself and ended his own life by shooting himself three times. When the superintendent of the building and employes broke down the door they found him and his wife dead, Hacker with his arms clasped about his wife's neck and lips close to her cheek as though he died while trying to kiss her.

For a day and night Hacker and his wife had been quarreling. They had been married a little less than two years and it seems Hacker was insanely jealous of his wife.

Hacker was employed by the McCall Pattern Company and is said to have been well-to-do.
